

The Pennsylvania State Council of SHRM Awarded For Elevating Human Resources, Improving Workplaces

Pennsylvania, May 29, 2019 — SHRM (the Society for Human Resource Management) recently awarded the Pennsylvania State Council of SHRM its prestigious EXCEL Platinum Award for the Council’s accomplishments in 2018.

The EXCEL award aligns individual chapters’ and state councils’ activities with SHRM’s aspirations for the HR profession. The award recognizes major accomplishments, strategic activities, and tactical initiatives that elevate the profession of human resources.

“So much of SHRM’s success in shaping better workplaces—where employers and employees can thrive together—is owed to the hard work of our chapters and state councils such as the Pennsylvania State Council of SHRM. Through their courage and leadership, PA SHRM is driving true, measurable progress toward the healthy, productive, and dynamic workplaces of tomorrow,” said Johnny C. Taylor, Jr., SHRM-SCP, president and chief executive officer of SHRM. “Awarding this Platinum Excel Award is just one small way for SHRM to recognize and celebrate the big steps this State Council has taken this past year.”

The EXCEL Award can be earned at four levels: bronze, silver, gold and platinum. Each level has a prescribed set of requirements and accomplishments that must be met. The Pennsylvania State Council of SHRM will receive recognition in SHRM publications and at conferences, a logo to display on its website, and information to share with its members about the significance of this award.

The Pennsylvania State Council of SHRM continuously strives to bring quality programming to Human Resource professionals in PA. 2018 was a banner year for the Legislative & Legal Conference, our Leadership Conference, and our State Conference. These events were not only well attended, but the feedback received from the attendees demonstrated that the Council is providing what the members are asking for while also pushing the boundaries to bring topics that are on the forefront of the HR profession.
